3.. 08-02-2013 The matter has been listed pursuant to the office note dated 7th February, 2013 to the effect that the records have been damaged and thus need to be reconstructed.

In view of the aforesaid, learned counsel for the petitioner is directed to file legible copies of the writ petition and supplementary affidavit along with their annexures within four weeks from today. The Office shall download the order passed in the case from the Internet and get the same signed by the Court. The reconstructed records along with ordersheets may then be maintained as per the rules in the Record Room of the Court. This Court would like to indicate that before the records are sent to the Record Room, the concerned section shall ensure that it is free of termites and other pests so that it does not lead to other records being affected.
